Work experience:

June 2019 Orangey

As part of work experience working for Oragey, a design agency in Guildford. I worked on editing and colour grading racket reviews of Patrick Mortagalou for Dunlop, having to create one perfect version from multiple clips each with their own problems as well as creating motion graphics assets.

Freelance video producer:

December 2018 –March 2019 Shelton Development Services

Hired to create an animated advertisement from the ground up for Shelton Development Services to promote their newest software. I had full control of the project and had regular correspondence with the client at every stage to ensure that they were pleased with the direction and development. I fully wrote, storyboard and animated it as well as creating all assets used. It can be watched here: <https://vimeo.com/user82960244> paid commissions to create landscape paintings in an impressionist style .

Freelance Painter

2021

Artist:

2012– Present

I spend a great deal of my time sharpening my art skills, taking online courses, and creating illustrations of characters and human portraits for myself and others on commission. I love to research and think up new ways to do things to improve quality and speed

Customer Service assistant

2014– Present

I have worked at my local supermarket for many years and I am trusted to do the job well and have been trained in additional duties such as operating the Post Office. I am reliable and flexible covering many shifts at short notice. I have also created systems to make tasks more efficient, such as buying a till bell so that customers can ring for service when the shop is not busy, allowing the till attendant to help with other tasks in the store, as well as creating easily scannable barcodes for plastic bags to speed up the process of adding plastic bags to a transaction

Education

2014-2018 University for the Creative Arts, Farnham: BA Animation 2:1

The focus of the course was making individual and group short films where we were creatively and managerially responsible for the project, doing script writing, storyboarding, directing and animation. The animation was predominantly hand-drawn using the software TV Paint. I also have experience in AfterEffects animation and computer animation. Group work played a part in the projects and I often took the lead to organise my teammates and make sure the project was delivered on time.

- I was winner of the University's Political Satire competition for the 2015 election.
- Prior to the degree course, I did an Art Foundation year where I was exposed to various disciplines and create a project. I created a short animation film for which I received a distinction.

Other Qualifications

- Full clean driving licence
